LLWB
The Lebanese League for Women in Business

cordially invites you to attend a workshop on:

Networking: A key for personal and professional success

“15% of one’s financial success is due to one’s technical knowledge and about 85% is due to skill in human engineering” (Dale Carnegie)

What is the first impression you leave? How does it impact your relationships?

How do relational networks influence your personal and professional life?

What makes some people “popular”? Is the ability to develop friends and acquaintances limited to some gifted persons?

How can you obtain the social recognition you deserve?

How can you develop your self-image and use it as an asset to build relationships?

All of the above and more are waiting for you in an exciting workshop, sustained with role plays and interactive exercises.

This session will be lead by Mr. Fadi El Halabi, psychologist, trainer and TV talk shows animator and Ms. Mirna Abi-Aad, specialist in human resources management.

Looking forward to share with you this special competency development experience.

On Tuesday, March 18, 2008, 5:00 PM at the Gefinor Rotana Hotel, Don Pepe, Level R.
